IC STAFF WEEKLY REPORT
9 August 1974

Responding to Presidential Objective

NEW ITEMS

1. NSCIC Meeting

Proposed agenda for a 16 August meeting of the NSCIC and a list of items to be included in the briefing book for each NSCIC member was approved by the DCI. Action Officer: CS/S/ [REDACTED]

25X1

2. Follow-On Actions to the Perspectives

Began review and analysis of the 23 different actions listed in the "Perspectives for Intelligence, 1975-1980" for the purpose of identifying specific responsibilities for follow-on actions by the Community and the IC Staff over the next one- to five-year period. Display being prepared for Management Center. Action Officer: CS/S/ [REDACTED]

25X1

3. OMB Proposal for Analytical Improvement

An initial meeting of interested ICS officers was held on 7 August. It was agreed that PRD would produce a paper which seeks to describe the project and which will be used to draft terms of reference. These could then be sent to appropriate community producers if we wish to solicit their views and proposals. Action Officers: PRD/ [REDACTED]

4. WWMCCS Interface Working Group

25X1 Responding to request from OASD(I), and per instructions from [] AC/IHC is the point of continuing contact for the IBM architects planning WWMCCS design, insofar as WWMCCS interfaces with intelligence information handling and telecommunications outside DoD. The immediate inquiries from IBM relate to existing and planned CIA systems and organizations. An initial working group meeting was held on 6 August, with participation from CIA Office of Communications, ICS components and IHC at which tentative IBM information needs were identified. We will confirm authorization to arrange specific CIA briefings from CIA/OC, Operations Center, NIC, etc., and will make the necessary contacts and arrangements. An ad hoc WWMCCS Interface Working Group has been formed. Action Officers: IHC/[] PRD/[] CS/S/[]

25X1

5. NSDM 248

25X1 AC/PRD received a call from Colonel Granger, NSC Staff, who apparently is responsible for advising Kissinger on what to do about our paper on NSDM 248. Granger advised that he plans to recommend that Kissinger accept the report and let the matter stand as is. But Granger added there may be another look at the problem (presumably in the NSC Staff) around November 1 to see what the DCI has actually done. Action Officer: PRD, []

ON-GOING ACTIVITIES
